Sub-Compact Wagons

By Don Narus
Paperback, $22.95

Don Narus has a surefire way of bringing the next generation into the hobby: write about the cars they grew up with. After all, who can resist a trip down Memory Lane? In this case, those childhood cars are the Chevrolet Vega and Monza station wagons.

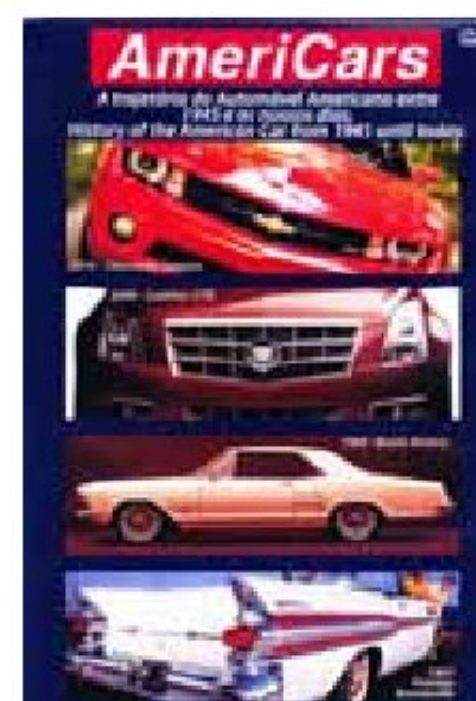

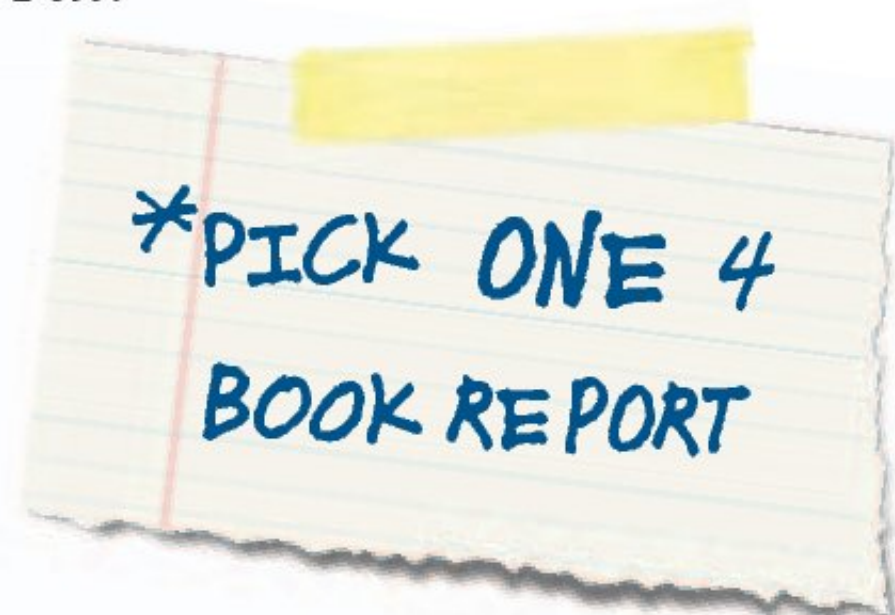

These are just two of the models detailed in Narus's latest book, Sub-Compact Wagons. In it, he provides an illustrated survey of the family haulers that had a wheelbase of 100 inches or less. In addition to the Chevrolet subcompact wagons, Narus writes about those long-roofs from Bantam and Crosley, along with the Ford Pinto, Mercury Bobcat, Nash Rambler, AMC Pacer, and Pontiac Astre and Sunbird. Most importantly for Chevy history buffs, even the ultra-rare Vega Nomad wagon is featured!

More than 230 photos provide an informative visual tour spanning from 1938 to 1980. Detail-rich black and white images generously highlight front and back ends, dashboards, seats, and unique details.

Each chapter begins with a brief history of a marque's wagon and an overview of styling changes. Narus enhances the picture and caption format with his engaging writing style, which makes you feel as though you are right alongside the car, checking it out with a knowledgeable buddy at a particularly good car show. What might not be so obvious at first glance is vividly noted through his discerning eyes. Chapters end with an overview of models, wheelbases, engines, and prices.

For any lover of wagons, particularly the weird and wonderful subcompacts, this book is a must-have addition to your library. Order a copy from www.newalbanybooks.com for $22.95 plus $3.99 shipping.

AmeriCars: A History of the American Car from 1945 until Today

Produced by Ricardo Gualazzi
Three-DVD set, $30

Americans aren't the only ones who love American cars. They're a symbol of everything that makes the United States great: innovative, dynamic, and unquestionably appealing. So it's no surprise that there are Chevrolet fans across the globe.

It was a surprise, though, to open the mail and discover a carefully wrapped package from Brazil. Inside was quite the treasure: a three-DVD set called AmeriCars: A History of the American Car from 1945 until Today, conceived and produced by Ricardo "Rick" Gualazzi, a vintage car buff from São Paulo, Brazil. A note inside offered that the DVDs "present my research into the American automobile industry and its influence on the Western way of life of the twentieth century, from the end of World War II until today. Mainly, it is a tribute to the American people and the American culture—a small show of gratitude for the people who have done so much for all of us in the Western world."

And what a show! The DVDs cover all of the major marques and many independents. Chevrolet gets the lion's share of attention, taking up a full 40-plus minutes on the first DVD. The presentation consists of a montage of car photos; period car ads, images, and illustrations; vintage pop culture images; era-appropriate music; and clips from news reels, movies, and TV shows. It all combines to form a great overview of the cars and culture that shaped American society from 1945 through 2014.

While all three DVDs and the hours of historical research and cultural flashbacks they provide are worth watching, the Chevy segment, in particular, would be fun to have playing in the background at your next tour kickoff or show banquet.

As the introduction to the DVDs notes, AmeriCars is a "tribute to the American people for their commitment to freedom, progress, and free enterprise." Add in some obvious Chevy affection, and it's a winning formula.

If you'd like a copy of your own, get in touch with Rick Gualazzi at americarsrick@uol.com.br. He originally created AmeriCars as a personal project, but he's willing to send professional copies to interested VCCA members for $30 to cover the cost of production and airmail shipping. Payment can be made via check, sent by airmail to Rick Gualazzi, Av. Santo Amaro, 1817, Apto. 113 04505-003 Sao Paulo – SP Brazil.
